DIEPPE PRODUCED VALUABLE INFORMATION FOR INVASION

Better 5,000 Killed, If We Had To Be, Than Five Hundred Thousand Later On, Says Capt. Fred Woodcock Of Winona.

RAID WORTH WHILE

Returned Hero Entertained By E. D. Smith And Sons' Employees—Is Hopeful Future Treatment Will Restore Vision To Some Extent.

"Better 5,000 of us be killed, if we had to be, than later lose 500,000 men on the same job." This is the answer of Capt. Fred Woodcock, blinded hero of Dieppe, to those who criticize the assault on the French coast town as a military blunder. His comments were made Thursday when he addressed assembled employees of E. D. Smith & Sons, Ltd., Winona, who welcomed home the hero of the history-making attack. Sole survivor of a group that pushed off in one invasion barge, Capt. Woodcock has been repatriated after 14 months in a German prison camp.

If any one is entitled to offer criticism of the Dieppe show, probably no one has a better right to do so than Capt. Woodcock, but there was no bitterness as he related his story.

"I'm not a hero; I wasn't able to do enough," was the officer's remark.

Motorist Injured Cars Damaged

Wm. Pearson Receives Lacerations To Head In Accident On No. 8 Highway Saturday Night.

William Pearson, Grimsby, was attended by Dr. J. H. MacMillan on Saturday night following a motor accident in which he sustained lacerations to the head.

According to police investigation, a westbound car in charge of Mrs. Mary Beaver, Dundurn street, Hamilton, and an east-bound machine, the occupants of which were William Pearson, Grimsby, and Fred Stewart, Winona, were in collision on No. 8 highway about two miles west of town. While the latter car is said to be owned by William Pearson, Stewart admitted being the driver.

Both cars were extensively damaged on the right-hand side, the Hamilton driver claiming that the other car was on its wrong side of the road and that she had to swerve to her wrong side in order to avoid a head-on crash. Provincial Constable Ernest Hart is in charge of the investigation.

Red Cross Fund Reaches $5,500

Objective Of $7,500 Must Be Attained In Next 10 Days—High School Students Help Out In Big Way.

Up until Tuesday night Grimsby and North Grimsby Red Cross campaign for funds had reached a total of $5,500, and Ralph Boehm and his staff of canvassers felt very confident that by the time the campaign ends, they will have reached the total of their objective, which is $7,500.

Citizens generally have received the canvassers in a friendly manner and have given all that they have felt that they could afford. In addition to the splendid assistance rendered by the girl students of the Grimsby High school, the fund of $150 raised by all the students is very deserving of special mention.

The girls by their calls on the homes ahead of the canvassers were a great help and the students as a body backed up the girls in a very practical way.

The campaign comes to a close on Saturday night, March 18th and it is sincerely hoped that before that time the total objective will have been reached.

As we go north the buildings improve—a strange medley of modern and old—streamlined apartments and government buildings, mingled with old castles, and balconies, and always facing onto cobble streets. One building will have an elaborate iron-grill gate protecting an inner patio with statuary and fountain, while the adjoining apartment will have round corners of glass brick, and inset balconies with chromium railings—evidently Mussolinian. But in general, the villages are rubble, and in one of 300 population, not a single toilet could be found. Bath tubs where found, are as

It is very doubtful if there is a public utility on the whole American continent, or in the world for that matter, that has expended any more money or devoted more energy to the cause of First Aid and the saving of life, not only for its own employees, but for the public in general, than The Bell Telephone Co. of Canada.

Every male employee and thousands of its female employees are First Class First Aid administrators, not only for the people that may be injured while on company duty, but for the public at large, where ever an accident takes place and a Bell man or woman happens to be close. All the expense of this training has been borne by the company.

$300. Not $3.00

The little Typogrem-alins got in their dirty work last week. First they balled up "Sandy" Globe's letter to the editor and then in our feature story about the White Elephant Shop donation to the Red Cross, they slipped a period in between the figure three and the first cipher and made the amount donated to read $3.00, instead of $300. So sorry.

The Cross On The Buns

Perhaps it is a little early to wonder why there is a cross on hot cross buns, obligatory fare for Good Friday's breakfast table. A deliver into the past says that in medieval times, when the belief in the evil one was much stronger than it is today, housewives cut the sign of the cross in the dough to prevent him from spoiling the baking. It was considered that extra protection against misfortune was needed on Good Friday, for it was regarded as the unluckiest day in all the year.

"They March Better On Tea"

Commandos march better on tea than on water. This fact has been demonstrated by an official test recently carried out in Great Britain. A Canadian battalion was undergoing a 12-days' course of battle training. The last six days were devoted mainly to marching, and during the period the foot-sloggers covered more than 250 miles. As an experiment, three out of four platoons were allowed to get all the water they wanted. The members of the fourth platoon were kept entirely off water and were served only with tea. The "water platoons" made good use of their water bottles, but the "tea platoon" was the only one to finish the course intact. Which only goes to show that there must be something in the soldier's traditional liking for "a cup of rosin lee".

Powder Puffs From Geese

Swansdown powder puffs and goose fat seemingly unrelated have an intimate connection. The fat is a by-product of the powder puff. Before the war swansdown came from swans. Now it comes from geese and one New Jersey farm there are thousands of them whose main mission in life is to produce a powder puff that will not irritate the most sensitive feminine nose or cheek. There are wild geese without once ounce of superfluous fat but that is not true of the domestic goose which generally has a pound or so. Goose fat is no drug on the market. It sells in New Jersey for 92 cents a pound and that is too expensive for rubbing on boots or sore throats in the old traditional fashion. It is in fact used for a spread on bread as a substitute for butter.

Get Your Money's Worth

Wise homemakers know that in good meal planning, correct cookery methods are just as important as proper food selection. Many of the values present in the foods you buy at the grocers can be lost before those foods reach the dinner table unless particular care is taken.

- Do not soak vegetables before cooking.
- If you must pare vegetables and fruits, pare thinly.
- Cook vegetables as quickly as possible.
- Avoid overcooking—cook until just barely tender.
- Stern vegetables rather than drowning them. Put vegetables in an amount of boiling water that doesn't quite cover them and cook in a tightly covered saucepan.
- Save the water in which vegetables are cooked and use it in cream sauces, gravies and soups.
- Never add soda to cooking vegetables. It may preserve the colour but it destroys the vitamins.
- Try to cook the right amount for each meal. Storing and reheating causes loss of vitamins.
- Have you been missing out on any of these points? Check up on yourself and make sure that it cannot be said of your house that "the drainpipe is better nourished than the family".

THE MIXING BOWL

By ANNE ALLAN
Hydro Home Economist

Hello Homemakers! You have probably been using your egg beater more than usual during the last month or two. If so, you may have wondered sometimes just when egg whites were beaten enough. One recipe will say, "add beaten egg whites" and another "beat eggs until firm and glossy but not dry."

There is no set stage at which egg whites are beaten enough. It is a case of "it all depends." That is, you beat egg whites to different stages for different purposes. For example, when making a meringue topping for a pie or folding in an angel cake mixture, egg whites should be beaten only until they are a soft foam. The air bubbles are small and the beaten whites are glossy and moist but form soft rounded peaks.

Fairly stiff beaten eggs are used in making omelets, souffles, cake frostings and meringues. In this case the whole mass is glossy yet stiff enough to slip from the bowl intact. The peaks are pointed and you should be able to cut clearly through the whites. If, however, you beat egg whites any stiffer than this, they will be dry and look dull. Small flakes or lumps appear, which will spoil the texture of the mixture to which the egg white is added.

Several things affect the way an egg white acts when you beat it. One is that eggs at room temperature will beat more rapidly than those taken directly from the refrigerator. Another is that the thicker the egg white, the longer it takes to beat it, but the foam does stand up better. It is amazing how much egg white is left in the shell, so scrape each shell out after you have carefully separated the yolks and whites.

Grandmother has always beaten egg whites with a quick round click of the fork on a cold plate—using a favourite fork, but any fork does the job. A good rotary beater is a good whip to use, in a shallow cold bowl, but they are as scarce as the electric beater, which does the job easily for you.

And then if sugar is to be added to egg whites, use granulated sugar, adding the required amount gradually.

Hot Water Sponge Cake

1 cup flour, 1½ teaspoons baking powder, ¼ teaspoon salt, 2 eggs, 1 cup sugar, 6 tablespoons hot water, ½ tablespoon lemon juice.

Sift the flour, measure it, add the salt and sift it again. Separate the whites and yolks of the eggs and beat the yolks until they are thick and lemon-coloured. Add the sugar gradually and beat again. Add the lemon juice and hot water and mix thoroughly. Fold in the flour, alternately with the stiffly beaten egg-whites. (Be careful not to beat the cake at this stage). Bake in a floured sheet or loaf tin in electric oven (best, 325° F., 30 minutes—loaf, 200° to 325° F., 40-60 minutes).

Coffee Frosting

unbeaten egg-white, 7/8 cup granulated sugar, 3 tablespoons cold coffee.

Place all ingredients in the top of a double boiler. Place over boiling water and beat with beater for 7 minutes. Beat and spread on cake.

Fish Fondue

1 cup milk, 1 cup soft bread crumbs, 1 tablespoon butter, ¼ teaspoon salt, 3 eggs, fish.

Scald the milk, add bread crumbs butter and salt. Add egg yolks slightly beaten. Cool to lukewarm. Add 1 to 1½ cups meat or fish, drained and flaked or chopped. When ready to bake, fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Turn into greased baking dish and bake in an electric oven of 350° F. for 45 to 50 minutes. Yield: 6 servings.

THE QUESTION BOX

Mrs. W. S. suggests:

Burnt Sugar Pudding

2 egg yolks beaten, 1 tablespoon white sugar, 2 tablespoons corn starch, 2 cups milk, ¼ teaspoon vanilla, 3 tablespoons brown sugar.

Make basic cornstarch pudding by heating 1½ cups milk and adding a paste, made of sugar, corn starch, beaten egg yolks and vanilla, with a little of the ½ cup milk. Put three tablespoons brown sugar in frying pan and caramelize, stirring constantly. When liquified, stir in ¼ cup boiling water. Let mixture cool. Fold in 2 egg whites, beaten until firm and glossy.

Answer: This is a dessert to be recommended to serve your best friends.

Note: The incorrect amount of sugar in the oatmeal cookie recipe was shown two weeks ago. We heard from thirteen people who said they had tried them and we are truly sorry this happened. The amount should have been 1½ cups sugar, not 2½ cups.

Leather Life-Saver

A periodic cleaning of leather upholstery or other articles of leather prolongs its life and good looks.

A damp cloth and mild soap are good and saddle soap is especially effective. Surfaces should first be rubbed briskly with a damp soapy cloth. They should then be wiped off with another cloth wrung out of clean water. The job is finished by rubbing dry with a clean, soft cloth until the surfaces are smooth and glistening.

Cleaners or polishes containing benzene, turpentine, alcohol or naphtha should never be used on leather since they may ruin the surface.

Job had patience but perhaps he never suffered from a cracked lip.

LAST-MINUTE TIPS ON HEAT-SAVING

When you see RED—stop shaking

Red always means STOP. And that's what it means when you see that first faint red glow in the ash pit—STOP. Shaking it even one second more simply wastes good coal. And coal is hard to get.

"I owe my life to the RED CROSS"

SUCH is the grateful testimony of countless fighting men who kept their "rendezvous with Death" and live to tell the tale. Every Red Cross triumph over death, wounds, disease and human agony is that in which you may take pride. Because it is YOUR Red Cross. Thus it is you who help those in pain and peril.

Now as the dreadful carnage of war increases—as more famine-stricken countries are made accessible to your Red Cross, the need grows at terrific pace. So much money is needed to maintain a steady flow of parcels for prisoners of war, of blood serum, medical supplies and dressings, surgical instruments, hospitals and hospital equipment, food and clothing, to name but a few of the demands on your Red Cross. CALLING ALL WORKERS

"There is no glamor in sewing, it is hard and tedious work. So is knitting—seamen's turtle neck sweaters and seamen's stockings", says Mrs. John C. Fraser, chairman Ontario Women's War Work Committee. Mrs. Fraser warns of the serious falling off in supplies, adding that many Branches are taking half and less than half their quotas of previous years. This is due, in a measure to the periodic lack of materials and wool.

These figures tell the story and show decrease in woolen comforts alone.

Monthly reports show: Dec. 1941, 80,252; Dec. 1942, 42,756; Dec., 1943, 17,265.

Totals of yearly reports of woolen comforts: 1941, 1,904,683; 1942, 747,952; 1943, 411,574.

Says Mrs. Fraser: "Surely this is startling. Chairmen of sewing committees are worried; warehouse chairmen are worried. The falling off in supplies is really serious."

We are convinced that this only needs to be brought to the attention of all Red Cross women in Grimsby, to result in all taking up their needles to once again bring in the much needed woolen comforts (even if the wool is not just as soft and easy to work with as heretofore).

Trinity W.A.

After the meeting was over, Mrs. Watt asked the ladies to look at the kitchen, pantry and bathroom, which had just been painted, and paid for by the Association, which certainly improved the appearance of the rooms.

The meeting closed by singing "What a Friend we have in Jesus", and prayer by Mrs. Watt.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Louise Devine and Mrs. R. Theal, and a social half hour was enjoyed.

The April meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. C. P. Brown, on Robinson Street South.

OBITUARIES

MISS IVA CULVER

A familiar and well loved resident of Grimsby Beach passed away on Tuesday afternoon in Hamilton hospital, after an illness of short duration, in the person of Mrs. Iva Culver in her 59th year.

Miss Culver came to Grimsby Beach with her parents Mrs. Culver and the late Wm. J. Culver, from Medina, N.Y. in the spring of 1910, at the time that the late H. H. Wylie was transforming the popular summer resort into an amusement park. Her father had the merry-go-round and other concessions, which she helped him operate.

Since that time she has been a continuous resident of the Beach and was beloved by all, particularly the summer residents, who could always count on her assistance in their many activities.

Besides her mother she leaves one sister, Mrs. Walter Smith of Niagara Falls, N.Y. to mourn her loss.

Funeral services will be held from the Stonehouse Funeral Home on Friday afternoon at two o'clock, to Queen's Lawn cemetery, Rev. G. Taylor-Munro officiating.

MRS. JEAN HOWARTH

A resident of many years standing in this district, there passed away in Hamilton hospital, on Monday night, Mrs. Jean Howarth, relict of the late H. A. Howarth, in her 83rd year.

Deceased lady came to Grimsby many years ago and for a long time fruit farmed at the corner of Baker's Road south and No. 8 Highway. Since the death of her husband she has resided at the corner of Nelles Road and the highway.

She was a very well read woman and had many accomplishments. For many years she was one of the most prominent breeder and exhibitor of Pomeranian dogs in the Dominion and won many prizes in Canada and the United States with her pets.

She had spent New Year's day the guest of Jas. A. and Mrs. Wray, and when leaving their home that evening slipped and fell on the ice breaking her hip. She was immediately taken to hospital but never recovered from the injury.

The remains were brought to the Stonehouse Funeral Home, where a short service was held on Wednesday night, then taken this morning by C.N.R. to Peterboro for interment in the family plot.

MRS. CAROLINE DIEHL

Following a lengthy illness, Mrs. Caroline Diehl, widow, of Rev. H. R. Diehl, retired Anglican Minister who resided at Grimsby Beach, passed away at a Hamilton hospital Friday last in her 79th year.

Her husband predeceased her last July, and so far as is known, she leaves no survivors. She was born in London, Ont., on September 18, 1865, a daughter of the late Joseph and Eliza Jacobs. Remains rested at the Stonehouse funeral home, Grimsby, until Monday afternoon, when funeral service was held at St. Andrew's Anglican Church. Interment being in St. Andrew's church yard.

MRS. MAHALEY MERRITT

Caistor township lost one of its oldest and most highly respected residents on Wednesday of last week in the passing of Mrs. Mahaley Merritt, widow of Valmer Merritt, who died at the home where she had lived for the past 70 years.

She was in her 93rd year and was born in Glanford township on January 11, 1852, a daughter of the late Elijah and Margaret Smith. Her husband predeceased her 47 years ago. She had been very active until a few months ago.

She had been a member of Ker Church for over 70 years and took a keen interest in the W.M.S. and all other church organizations. She was also a strong temperance worker.

It was on her farm that the firm of Merritt Bros., basket manufacturers, came into being some 35 years ago when her eight sons, four since deceased, started into business in the manufacture of fruit baskets, using timber cut on the farm. Later, they moved the business to Grimsby where it now operates.

Surviving are four sons and one daughter; Benson and Orton, Caistor township; John and Frank, of Grimsby, and Mrs. Curtis Swayze, of Caledonia.

Funeral services were held on Saturday last, a private service being conducted at the home before the public services in Ker church, which was conducted by Rev. Henry S. Piddes, of Wellandport, assisted by Carl Zurbirge, student pastor of the Ker field. Floral tributes were many and beautiful. A duet was sung by Mrs. Joseph Barrett and Miss Bernice Smith, of Hamilton, accompanied by Dr. J. O. Merritt.

Interment was made in the Ker Church Cemetery. Casket-bearers were six grandsons of deceased, Reginald Merritt, Lyle Merritt, Stanley Merritt, Dr. J. O. Merritt, Earl Norton and Alex Young.

W. P. S. MILLWARD

After being confined to Mount Hamilton hospital for two months with illness, William Percival S. Millward passed away on Tuesday morning at the age of 65 years.

Deceased was born in Grimsby in the large frame home that stands on the east side of Main street, top of Anderson's Hill, a son of the late Dr. W. E. and Mrs. Millward. As a youth he took up photography with a man by the name of McCullough, later buying him out and for a number of years conducted a photograph gallery, which he sold to the late Charles Caldwell.

He then followed the trade of a carpenter and 22 years ago moved to Hamilton to reside. He was a former employee of The Appleford Counter Check Book Co. and the Dunlop Tire and Rubber Goods Co.

A member of Delta United Church, Mr. Millward took an active interest and was a leader. He was president of the Bible class and his services will be greatly missed. Mr. Millward belonged to Union Lodge, A.F., A.M., Grimsby.

Left to mourn his loss are his wife, the former Florence Beatrice Wismer; six sons, Cecil, Furlington; Carl, Pontiac, Mich.; Melvin, Hamilton; Guy, Chippawa; Bruce, Montreal; and Lyle with the navy in Fredericton; two daughters, Mrs. George Rodney, Detroit, and Mrs. Frank Elliott, Hamilton; four sisters, Mrs. Grace Hurst, Markham; Mrs. Charles Tetschulte and Mrs. Muriel Engles, Los Angeles, and Mrs. Charles Walters, Brookville, Pa.; two brothers, Bert McConnell, Victoria, and William McConnell, Los Angeles.

The funeral will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from Truscott Brothers funeral home, Hamilton, to Queen's Lawn Cemetery, Grimsby, for interment.

Members of Union Lodge will meet at their hall at three o'clock and at the cemetery at 3.30.

Some Info. Please

In the House of Commons, the other day, Joseph W. Burton (C.C. F. Humboldt, Sask.), told the house that "for too long we have let arm chair farmers and swivel-necked politicians run our business."

We know what an armchair farmer is, for the Fruit Belt has been plagued with them for years.

We have heard tell of carpet bag, scap box, ward heeler and forty other kinds of politicians, but we would like some information on this particular type and breed of swivel-neck politician.

Blinker Light

Next time you are driving at night and you see a motor vehicle rushing at you out of the darkness, with a red light blinking on and off, get out of the road for it is a fire-truck.

A new automatic red-lensed spotlight has been affixed to the Grimsby pumper truck, on the top centre of the windshield. This light when the switch is turned, blinks on and off in the same manner as a blinker light works at a highway or street intersection.

When you see this red blinker coming at you, take no chances, get off to the side of the road and give the truck the clear highway.

Paint Buildings

The General Administration Committee of Lincoln County Council Friday night considered several jobs of painting and decorating in the county jail and court house. The committee's recommendations will be presented for approval at the March session of the county council. The tender of A. H. Bannan, St. Catharines, to paint and paper four bedrooms at the county jail will be recommended. Paint is to be bought to redecorate No. 2 corridor at the jail, where the prisoners will do the work. Tenders are to be sought for cleaning and painting three rooms in the judge's chambers at the court house. C. F. Neelands, deputy provincial secretary, wrote that it would be permissible to raise the salary of John Dundas, jailer.

County Jail In Excellent Shape

The Lincoln grand jury recommended to Hon. Justice George A. Urquhart that "urgent, speedy steps be taken for adequate quarters and care for mental cases" at the Lincoln County jail. The report will be forwarded by Justice Urquhart to the Lincoln County and St. Catharines councils for consideration.

Neither at the General Hospital nor at the county jail is there special facilities for accommodating the mentally ill. Frequently, persons awaiting mental examinations or transfer to Ontario mental institutions are detained at the jail for several days.

The grand jury reported that the Industrial Home was in excellent condition, "well managed" and the inmates well cared for. There are 37 male and 22 female inmates at present. The jury recommended that two fire escape doors be rehung to open out, and that lockers be installed in the men's cloak room which they described as a "fire trap."

The report stated that the county jail is in excellent condition "with regular repairs as necessary and good housekeeping throughout. The governor is very efficient and keen to explain in all matters and conditions and we congratulate him on his thoroughness."

Theron Beamer, Gainsboro, was foreman of the grand jury.

MANY PUPILS ARE $155 in the public school during February was reported by Kenneth Griffith, principal.

Apparently some pupils, or their parents, are taking advantage of the continued non-appointment of a school attendance officer, as a list of pupils, thought to be out of school due to parents' neglect, was handed to Chairman T. L. Dymond, by the school principal. Mr. Griffith also stated that the school nurse is visiting the homes of children who are not at school and who are believed to be ill.

Accounts passed for payment totalled $579.68.

BEAMSVILLE REEVE

Police Chief George Seymour's report for the last month showed 13 police calls, 14 complaints investigated, 2 accidents investigated, 3 summonses served and 13 aliens reported. Permission was granted the local Women's Institute branch to hold a tag day in aid of the Navy League on Saturday, May 20. Accounts passed for payment totalled $4,616.24.

Reeve R. A. Saunders reported that he had interviewed interested parties with a possible view to having a moving picture show opened in the village. "A movie house here is a need of the community," he commented.

A special meeting will be held to discuss the year's estimates prior to striking the tax rate.

A framed photograph showing the late Dr. J. B. Stallwood, M.O. H. from 1913 to 1939, and his son, the late Sgt. John B. Stallwood, R.C.A.F., killed on active service overseas in May, 1943, was placed on the wall of the council chamber.

ply to words of praise sounded by Brigadier Armand Smith, M.C., E.D., former brigade commander, himself invalided home from overseas, who welcomed him on behalf of the company and all its workers.

Here is the reaction of a brave officer who fought at Dieppe and lost that which is second probably only to life itself—his sight.

Dieppe the Model

"Some say Dieppe was a damned shame, a stupid, costly affair. We must remember that these plans are made to the finest detail a year ahead of their taking place. The Churchill tanks had to be tested and the only way to effectively do so was to test them with the lead flying. Only raids of this nature are a real test.

"Dieppe gave the most valuable information that has been obtained to date. All landings since have been based on the experiences, good and bad, learned at Dieppe. All have been patterned and modelled after the Dieppe affair.

"Better that 5,000 of us be killed, if we had to be, than later lose 500,000 men on the same job.

"This is the light in which people who are so ready to criticize should look at it. The military officials cannot argue back, for if they did so, they would divulge vital information."

The day war was declared Fred Woodcock quit his job in the shipping room at the E. D. Smith Company and went active. Fred was a sergeant in the Royal Hamilton Light Infantry (W.R.). He returned to the factory Thursday as Capt. Fred Woodcock, but he was the same "Woody" to his old associates.

Captain Woodcock is hopeful that future treatment may at least partially restore the vision of one eye. He couldn't see his old pals as he strode through the plant in which he had worked so many years, but he seemed to feel the warmth of their welcome. His cheerfulness was an inspiration to all and the tremendous sacrifice which he has made has not deprived him of his sense of humour. There were touching scenes, however, as the blind veteran chatted with those who had lost relatives at Dieppe.

Expressing his deep appreciation for so moving a tribute Captain Woodcock said he was "slightly handicapped" and his only regret was that he was not able to participate in the invasion in Italy, or in the pending Channel crossing.

"It's been a great day for me," he told Brigadier Smith as he left, and he told the scores of employees grouped around him in the office, and later in the plant, that the mention of their names recalled many happy incidents to mind.

He shook hands with most of them despite the fact that he has not recovered from a severe shoulder injury sustained in the fighting. He chatted with Mrs. David McConnell, fruitland, whose son, Pte. Andrew John McConnell, was with him at Dieppe and who was reported missing and later as killed in action.

Brigadier Smith, who welcomed Capt. Woodcock "to his old stamping ground," said every one was exceptionally proud of him and impressed with his buoyancy of spirit in the face of such a great sacrifice. It should be a lesson to those who complain because of little denials they are asked to make, he suggested. J. D. Lamont spoke on behalf of the office staff and George Hardiman on behalf of the employees of all other departments. Mrs. Robert McIntyre made Mrs. Woodcock the recipient of a corsage of roses, which prompted her husband to inquire: "Home grown?" mindful that rose growing is an important branch of the E. D. Smith business.

To conclude the home-coming festivities a luncheon was tendered Captain Woodcock by the company at The Pines, and representatives of all departments were in attendance. Brigadier Smith and Leon Smith presided and guests included: Lieut.-Col. A. E. Parker, M.C., officer-commanding 2nd Battalion (Reserve), R.H.L.I. (W.R.); Capt. Roy Parke, president of the Winona Patriotic Association; Rev. Dr. G. F. Scovill; and Howard Barnard, president of the Winona branch, Canadian Legion.

The average bus passenger is on the same footing nowadays.

UNDERGROUND BLACK

usually in separate villas—and a large with shower overhead and taps in the middle of the tub.

But this is not Italy any more. The Allied Military Government has taken over and doing a fair job, working thru the local officials and rigidly enforcing prices. But of course there is a "black market". Italians thrive on the underground.

The saddest sight, is the returning refugees, coming in from the mountain trails, with no shoes and scanty clothing. On the mountain top, where we were bivouacked, barefoot refugees trudged the trail in zero weather; one boy of six was carrying his two-year old sister on his shoulders, and the grandmother also with shoes trying to keep up. Over 200 passed at dawn. Many waited to kiss the hands of Americans—the first they had seen. Many had regrettable stories of happy days in the U.S.A.—the land of the free.

TELEPHONE MEN

efficiency and the co-operative spirit of Bell Telephone employees with the district in which they live and work and the people with whom they live among and do business with.

Over a year ago the Joint Fire Committee of the Town and Township purchased, upon the suggestion of Fire Chief Alf. LePage, an inhalator. The idea being that our three already then very busy doctors would teach the local members of the Fire Department how to operate it. As time went on nothing happened. The medico's were getting busier and busier all the time and consequently none of the smoke eaters received training.

In consultation with Mayor Edric S. Johnson, Chief LePage conceived the idea of asking the local Bell Telephone residents to help them out. That is now taking place.

C. P. R. TREASURER

J. A. DUNDAS, assistant to the vice-president of finance of the Canadian-Pacific Railway Company, Montreal, since 1932, was on February 14 named treasurer of the company by D. C. Coleman, the chairman and president. The new treasurer has been 37 years with the C.P.R.'s finance department and has served under all four of the company's financial vice-presidents—the late I. G. Ogden, John Leslie, E. E. Lloyd and L. E. Unwin, who is in charge of finance now. He is an authority on foreign exchange and in the fields of company finance and investment.

Charlie Norman, our pleasant, smiling, champ bowling "trouble shooter" ably assisted and abetted by Joe Waites, both qualified First Aid men are now teaching our fire laddies all about First Aid and the use of the Inhalator. For the past three weeks they have given up their own leisure time to teach the firemen and the classes will be continued every Friday night until every Grimsby Fireman will be a fully qualified First Aid and Inhalator Man.

Mayor Johnson, Reeve Charles Durham and the members of both councils, as well as the firemen, are very thankful for the co-operation and work that these Bell Company men are doing.

There's many a detour on the road to happiness.

an almost unbelievable incident — yet there it lay, a damaged parcel in the Repair Section containing several pounds of beefsteak, a roast of pork and a pound of butter — along with a suet pudding.

Postal authorities might seem to be labouring the point when they again remind the general public that items such as raw beefsteak and pork, to say nothing of butter and suet pudding, do not make the best travelling companions in heated railway mail cars or when packed with thousands of other parcels in the holds of ships for trans-ocean military destinations.

It will be recalled that in recent weeks somebody else mailed a well browned turkey drumstick to a soldier 3,000 miles away and prior to that a soldier's parcel at the Base Post Office was found to contain a clod of earth and a few hundred worms.

Another unfortunate angle of the present case — apart from the waste of valuable time it occasioned at the Base Post Office — was the fact that the sender must have expended valuable ration coupons to purchase the meat and the butter to send to that boy over there.

Ironically enough, the Customs Declaration accompanying this parcel was labelled "ex airve", which as a Canadian Postal Corps member remarked, was the only visible attempt at "preservation." The sender of the parcel was notified by the Postal authorities that such items should not be mailed. Again Postmaster-General Mullock asks the public, in their own interest and that of the men and women overseas to whom parcels mean so much, not to mail untinned meats, cardboard cartons of butter or any sort of foodstuff that will spoil in transit and cause damage to the surrounding mails.

This is your 1944 motor vehicle stamp

It renews your 1943 plate

GET YOUR 1944 MOTOR VEHICLE PERMIT NOW

Your 1944 motor vehicle permit is now ready. Good citizenship and good sense tell you to get it now.

Take good care of your 1943 plate. Wartime restrictions require that you use it for another year.

Your motor vehicle permit fee remains the same. With your 1944 motor vehicle permit there will be issued a windshield stamp such as that illustrated. The display of this stamp will validate the use of your 1943 plate.

1944 drivers' licenses are now available and should be secured at once.

FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

Do you know that both your motor vehicle permit and driver's license will be automatically suspended until you file proof of financial responsibility if you are convicted of a violation of the law following an accident? You may find an insurance policy difficult to secure then.

It is better to drive safely and avoid accidents than to find yourself unable to drive at all.

Foreign Smokes Are Not So Hot

Dec. 31st, 1943.

Dear Sir:

Many thanks for the 300 cigarettes which I received last night in perfect condition and just when I needed them most. It's certainly great to be able to receive the cigarettes you send and I do appreciate your kindness. This is New Year's Eve once again but it seems like anything but, as I had to work till 6 p.m. and then come back to camp about 25 miles over these crooked roads so you see it's anything but like New Year's for me to-night. Our bombers have been going over steadily all day and are still going to-night. I'm glad that I'm not in Jerries territory to-night, his main cities must be completely ruined now and I'm sure ere another winter comes around he will have to give in, for a bad job.

Canadians are still holding their good name in Italy although the weather has been against them. It's certainly nice to know that we're winning on all fronts at the present moment.

We've had grand weather up till to-night, but now it's started that steady rain again of which we get so much.

I must close now thanking you and all that made those cigarettes possible and hoping 1944 will see us all back once again.

With best wishes to all,

Yours respectfully,

Alex Neale.

Nov. 29, 1943.

Dear Sir:

In answer to your most welcome parcel of cigarettes which I received today. I can think of no way in which to thank you as the cigarettes they issue are those Indian v's and I must say they are terrible.

It is impossible to buy decent cigarettes in this land of the double cross. The Italian brand is, if anything, a degree worse than the vicious "V's".

Consequently our only source of decent "smokes" is Canada. So you may be sure that your gift is thoroughly appreciated.

Yours sincerely,

C. J. Hunt.

Dear Sirs:

Just a few lines thanking you for the 300 cigarettes which I received last month. Thanks a million, as we do appreciate it very much.

Yours truly,

Gnr. L. A. Allan.

Dec. 13th, 1943.

May I, through you take this opportunity of thanking the Chamber of Commerce for the cigarettes which I recently received. They were very much appreciated indeed.

Although this may arrive at a tardy moment, I would also like to wish your organization every possible success for the year 1944.

It is with a feeling of deep gratitude that one realizes that even far from his friends he is never forgotten.

Thanking you once again.

Robert Gibson.

Great Britain.

Jan. 14th, 1944.

Parcel received, many thanks.

Best wishes and good health.

Colin Caverhill.

Cigarettes arrived today. Many thanks to your organization for their kindness.

The season festivities are all over now and they were quite enjoyable. At present I am in Scotland and New Year's here is their big day it seems. The bag pipes buzzed all day and I quite enjoyed their celebrations.

I expect to go on leave this weekend and plan on going down to London for some of it. There certainly are many places one can go to on leave and see so many historical sites. These I shall never forget.

All good wishes to my friends in Grimsby who make these parcels possible.

Red Cross Founder Died In Poverty

Henri Dunant, founder of the Red Cross, died in poverty at Zurich in 1910 at the age of 82.

Few men have lived more fully or to better purpose. He expended his entire personal fortune and many years of his life to bring to fruition his great humanitarian idea which resulted in the birth of Red Cross. Switzerland, his native land, looks upon him as one of its greatest sons.

Though no monument in stone exists to honor his memory, he has left behind him a tremendous spiritual monument in the world-wide Red Cross organization that has spanned the political frontiers of sixty-three countries, comments the Canadian Red Cross Despatch. Countless people all over the world have cause to bless the memory of this great man and the organization he created which today is busier than ever before.

Grimsby vs. Beamsville

In the G.H.S. gym on Friday last, a ball epic was born! Within 30 seconds of the toss up, "Flash" Jewson (G.H.S. '47), scored the first basket. Grimsby scored several more and took a slight lead at this point. Beamsville however, took a spurt, and caught up. The first half ended with Beamsville two points in the lead.

During the second half, the Beamsville boys played rings around the Grimsby team, although Grimsby managed to score several times. Brilliant plays by Beamsville brought the final score to 32-19. Congrats, visitors!

BEHIND YOUR TELEPHONE...

"A VOICE FROM

PARADISE"

A sailor lands at an Eastern Canada port and telephones his mother in a faraway Ontario town. He has been on convoy duty, whereabouts unknown, for seven months. In a couple of minutes he is home.

"It was like a voice from paradise," his mother told our operator.

Every Bell operator, every Bell lineman is conscious of the importance of handling today's great volume of wartime messages with the least possible delay. Through their efforts, plus the public's co-operation in avoiding non-essential calls, messages still go through with near-normal speed.

In 1943, it took an average of 124 seconds to complete a long distance call—not very much longer than in normal times.

"Joke of the Week"

Came a slow noon-hour at G.H.S.

My friend, — shall we call him "Butch", — (any resemblance to persons living or dead is purely coincidental) — and I decided a jaunt to our lovely little town might revive our weary spirits.

As we were strolling past the basket factory, who should trot out but "Amos", the watch-dog of said edifice. Butch, who was in a jovial mood, called sweetly: "Here Amos, here Amos", — and Amos came!! On the ensuing rush for safety, Butch managed to lose his head apparel. Amos, being a quick thinker, seized the object and tore to the farthest end of his domain, where he proceeded to have a good healthy "chew". O happy day! Followed several hectic moments, when the two forces — "man" and dog, — battled for supremacy. Butch, upon recovery suitably exclaimed in his own vocabulary, when the huge rip in the crown was discovered! Crimson with anger, he attempted to make an appropriate exit by stomping away in disgust.

But, whom should he meet at the other entrance of the yard but Amos, desirous of a fond farewell. Butch has screwed up his courage by now, and gripping his prize in his hand, rushed towards the monster! Amos bitterly growled his defiance. Butch paused, a look of absolute frustration and hate flashing over his face, pointed a grubby finger at the dog, and bellowed: "I hate you!", "I hate you!". Turning, he stalked grandly down the street.

Perhaps you'd rather draw your own conclusions.

ROOT VEGETABLE PRICES STILL ON POUND BASIS

All root vegetables must be sold on a per pound basis whether they are loose or in bunches and with or without tops, the Prices Board has announced in answer to inquiries from all over Ontario. "In the case of beets and carrots, sold in bunches with full fresh tops, the price is still on a per pound basis for the whole bunch including the tops," the statement said. "In the root vegetable class, only beets and carrots may be sold with their tops on and then only if they are full fresh tops. All other root vegetables must be sold without tops."

Your Allotment Of Canning Sugar

Ten pounds of sugar per person will be allotted for canning this year. The first ten spare F coupons in Ration Book 3 will be valid for this purpose, each being good for one pound of sugar.

F coupons 1 to 5 will become valid for canning sugar about June 1. F coupons 6 to 10 will become valid for the same purpose during July. Precise dates will be announced later.

Some households depend entirely on home canning for their supply of preserves. They will be able to supplement their F coupons with preserves coupons. Since 26 preserves coupons for each customer become valid during 1944, each good for 1/2 pound of sugar, thirteen pounds of sugar per person may be secured in this way. This may all be used for canning, making a total, when added to the 10 pounds secured with F coupons, of 23 pounds of canning sugar per person in households depending entirely on home canning.

Other households do not home canning but depend entirely on honey, may a syrup and commercially packed jams and jellies. A special ruling to meet their needs allows them to exchange any of their valid canning sugar F coupons for preserves coupons at the rate of one F coupon for one preserves coupon. This may be done through the Local Ration Board.
